Give the actually state of the program (where the program stands at the date of the activity report, no more than ten lines):

Right now the new issue Continuum 14 is being submitted to our advisory board. This new issue is focusing on the celebration of the 70th anniversary of the state of Israel: literary writings, historical literary overview, personal points of view by Israeli writers and Jewish writers from France compose a rich dossier around the theme. The issue will be published before April 2018 and will be presented in an event on the Independence Day.

The main achievements during the last year of activity (main achievements, number of events, number of participants, etc.):

- As every year, the journal has been distributed in Israel, France and Belgium
- the magazine was presented by Marlana Braester in Maelstrom bookshop in Brussels during a reading presided by Professor Rose-Marie François from Liège University and editor David Giannoni.
- the journal was presented in the event celebrating the DADA movement in Dada Museum, Ein Hod.

The evaluation (methodology, results, comparisons with the precedent year, conclusions for the future...):

As compared to the previous year, the number of active members of the Association of the French language writers diminished, so we have to work much harder in order to achieve our goals. For the future we try to find more potential members of our Association.

Provisional guide lines for the advancement of the program in the next year:

CONTINUUM 15 will be published next year – the theme will be announced soon. In October 2019, CONTINUUM will take part in the next Salon de la Revue in Paris.
