

Community event	2010	2011	2012	2013
Tu Be'Shvat	A public event at the Alma house with 500 participants	A public event at the Alma house with 500 participants	A public event at the Alma house with 150 participants	A public event at the Alma house with 250 participants
Purim	A public event at the Alma house with 60 participants. Reading a Megila by Dr. Tamar Eilam Gindin about: "From Ahashverosh to Ahmadinejad" participating Comedians Inbal Lori and Gil kopatch.	An event at the "Hatachana compound" in Tel-Aviv with 300 participants. Dr. Yair Lipshiz lead a humoristic reading of the Megila participated by "The Inkubator" theater group.	An event at the Kibbutzim College in Tel-Aviv with 200 participants. Lihi Lapid, Adv. Benny don-yechiya and Professor Tamar El-Or led a feministic discussion. Megilah Reading by students of the Kibbutzim College.	A public event at the Alma house with 50 participants. Estee G. Haim, and Shiri Lev Ari, talked about Estee's new book, and the importance and significance of Purim – as the only day of carnival of the year, about queen Esther (after which Estee was named) and Esther neiny (the book hero), visibility and masks, about feminism in the Megilah, and about the influence of the Megilah figures on the book heroes life and the author's life.
Passover				A special public event, combining the most beautiful Hebrew songs and the stories from the Bible. at the Alma house with 60 participants
Holocaust Remembrance Day		A Screening of the film "The Hangman" and a discussion lead by the film's director Natalie Brown and Prof. Yehuda Shanhav.
Tikun	Our main yearly event held at Tel-Aviv Museum of Art with 1,600 participants. The event's theme was "Love and the Song of Songs". The event included 21 different sessions.	Our main yearly event held at Tel-Aviv Museum of Art with 1,700 participants. The event's theme was "Mother, Motherhood and the Family drama". The event included 27 different sessions.	Our main yearly event held at Tel-Aviv Museum of Art with 1,500 participants. The event's theme was " Rain, Thirst and Longing "- Masechet Taanit. . The event included 24 different sessions.	Our main yearly event was held in collaboration with several leading organizations. The central subject for this year's tikkun was "Night-time Bikurim". Throughout the night Alma offered guided tours and diverse and engaging workshop discussions, interactive sessions that included speakers and lecturers such as Dr. Ruth Calderon, Dr. Yair Caspi, Yehoshua Sobol, Dr. Neta Sobol, Yuval Caspin, Tsibi Geva and many more. The event was attended by a total of 2500 participants.

Tet B'Av (9th of Ab)	A joint event by 'Alma', 'Bina' and 'Beit Tfilah Israeli' at "Zavta" house in Tel-Aviv. 300 people participated. A reading of the "Eikhah Megilah" by Ehud Graf and a study session lead by representatives from the different organizations. Original music was composed for the event by students from "Rimon" music school that participated in a course at Alma.	An open street event (no entrance fee) in the framework of the protest tents for social justice in Rothschild St in Tel-Aviv. 100 people participated. The event was about the destruction of the national home and the connection to issues of social justice. Lead by Dr. Ruth Calderon, Hemi Ramiel and Noya Sagiv. Musical accompaniment: Chen Rotem	A joint event by 'Alma', 'Bina' and 'Beit Tfilah Israeli' at "Zavta" house in Tel-Aviv. 300 people participated. A reading of the "Eikhah Megilah". Among the speakers were: Ruth Calderon, Dov Elboim, Almog Behar, Tova Birenbaum, Amichay Lavi, and Amit Berkovich.	A joint event by 'Alma', 'Bina' and 'Beit Tfilah Israeli' at "Zavta" house in Tel-Aviv. 300 people participated. A reading of the "Eikhah Megilah". Among the speakers were: MK Dr. Ruth Calderon, Muki tzur, Prof. Haviva pedaya, Chana Pinchasi and Rabbi Mira Regev. 250 people participated
Selichot	An event at Wahll Amphi with 1000 participants. The event's theme was Father, Son and Forgiveness. Lead by Dr. Ruth Calderon, Yair Lapid and Prof. Yoram Yuval. Musical accompaniment: Yonni Rechter and Yael Keidar.	An open public event (no entrance fee) at Tel Baruch beach in Tel-Aviv. 600 people participated. The event's theme: Justice, Tzedakah and Forgiveness. Lead by Dr. Ruth Calderon, Yair Lapid and Rabbi Shai Piron. Musical accompaniment: Shem Tov Levi.	An event at Whall Amphi with 300 participants. The even't theme was the Jonah Biblical story. Lead by Dr. Ruth Calderon, Stav Shaffir, Rino Tzror, Rabi Dr. Micha Godman. Musical accompaniment: Nurit Galron	An event at Alma with 50 participants. Among the speakers : Dr. Motti Shalem Alma CEO, Rabbi Yuval Sherlo who talked about the ethics of forgiveness, with Prof. Nissim Calderon learned about the them of forgiveness in Hebrew literature, traditional song and Israeli rock. During the evening, Yair Dalal, performed old and new Selichot songs. At the end of the evening the audience where invited to "Hevruta" study
Hanukah	An event at the Alma house	An event at the Alma house with	1. An evevnt in Be'er-Sheva	1. Miracles and Wonders, with 60 participants. Festive candle lightning, a conversation about Light and Darkness in the Kabbalah and in the art with Netta Sobol and Adi Ness	60 participants. This year the theme is "the holiday of the three religions". An evening about miracles' stories lead by representatives from the Judaism, the Christianity and the Islam. Musical accompaniment: Yair Harel and Meirav Ben David.	with 30 participants. Traditional candle lighting and a discussion about the concept of "Light" in the book of Zohar and in Art. Dr. Ruth Calderon and Prof. Haviva Pdaya. Musical accompaniment: Chen Rotem, Alma's graduate. 2. An event at the Tel-Aviv Museum of Art. 60 participants. Matanl award ceremony and a festive candle lightning, a conversation about the appearance of light in miracle stories in Judaism and Islam.	The songs and stories: we will light the second candle of Hanukah along with children and parents, talk about the holiday stories and customs. The session will be hosted by: Yael Keidar, musician, singer, graduate of Alma's Creative Bet-Midrash program; and Noya Sagiv, Bible teacher, singer and artist. Anticipated - 35 participants. 2. December 1st - Lighting the 5th candle of Hanukah with journalist and writer Sarit Yishai Levy. Anticipated - 50 participants. 3. Nouch and the flood: we will light the last candle of Hanukah along with children and parents, talk with Gil Kopatch, Israeli comedian screenwriter and author, reading from his first children's book about the biblical story of Nouch and the flood. Anticipated - 35 participants.

Total number of Events	6 events	7 events	7 events	9 events