The delegation comprises eleven people: ten students from a number of universities in Israel, and myself as head of the delegation.

The delegation hold a joint seminar with students from Morocco and from Europe (Germany). The seminar was in the period 21-28 Shevat 5783, 12-19/2/2023, in the city of Essouira. Following the seminar, the delegation set out for a tour of the community in Marrakesh, meeting with representatives of the community and visiting sites of Jewish interest in the town of Marrakesh.

In total The number of participants in the activity was 35 students.

The seminar was devoted to the following topics:

1. Getting to know each of the delegations – Israel, Morocco, Germany.
2. Study of and familiarization with Jewish history in Morocco and the heritage of the Jewish community.
3. Familiarization with community and academic institutions in Morocco and student activity there.
4. The Abraham Accords and their contribution to the promotion of peace in the region.
5. Creation of frameworks among the students, for future contact and joint activity to advance the Abraham Accords.

Indeed, in summary discussions with the students, appreciation and satisfaction were expressed for the meeting and seminar with Arab students from Morocco. It was decided to continue, following the joint activity, by hosting a group of students from Morocco in Israel.

Provisional guide lines for the advancement of the program in the next year:

Organization of a follow-up seminar in Israel, for all the delegations that participated in Morocco. The seminar will also include a report on the activities of the delegations following the first seminar.
